

It takes no title to be a leader, and it is crucial to understand the difference between managing and leading. A leader can be a manager, but a manager is not necessarily a leader. A manager "does the thing right" and a leader "does the right thing". A manager directs people to existing paths; A leader directs people to new paths.

Being a leader starts with taking charge of your own personal life and directing it the way you desire. Leadership entails organizing people and resources towards effective and efficient pursuit of predetermined objectives. Leader catalyzes commitment, vigour to pursue a clear and compelling vision; stimulates the group to high performance standards. A leader is able to integrate diverse people, varied resources and different parts into a whole.

Prometheus - the Greek God - the creator and champion of mankind, is an icon of wisdom, dedication and courage. Prometheus – Executive Leadership Coaching aims at unveiling your full potential by unequalled professional guidance and expert management coaching. Coaching is the art and practice of inspiring, energizing, and facilitating the performance, learning and development of the individual. It unleashes your power to make an impact on your team, function and organization.
